

How Mentors Trainers Can Best Support Tammy in Becoming a Better Trainer

- Feel free to offer constructive feedback; she is eager to become proficient and is not overly sensitive to negative feedback.
- Be open to her ideas to enhance training material/content within the PCT curriculum.
- Be understanding that current work commitments do not allow her to train as often as she would like.
- Have a sense of humor.

Future Wishes and Plans

- Continue conducting the 2 day PCT class and expand to teaching other TLC curriculums.
- Work with three Georgia provider agencies within the next year to help them put individuals first while meeting Medicaid standards.
- Help providers in Georgia learn to use the PCT tools to problem solve situations and come up with solutions that work for everyone.

Tammy Williams' One Page Description

What People Like and Admire about Tammy as a PCT Trainer

- Passionate about PCT
- Very organized and prepared
- Very dependable
- Energetic, lively
- Great sense of humor
- Not boring; keeps everyone's attention; makes it fun
- Provides real life examples to PCT material
- Will train anywhere
- Very versatile, roll with the punches

What is Important To Tammy as a PCT Trainer

- Being a respected, effective trainer.
- Support the "movement" toward PCT.
- That every person comes away from the training with something new that they can use in their work.
- To win the respect of my colleagues in The Learning Community.
- For at least one person in each class to come away feeling empowered.